Global Strategic Communications Agency

Welcome to Aurora The Agency

We are a 360 global strategic communications agency.

We connect brands to people through integrated strategy, compelling storytelling, and impactful experiences.

Delivering Impact Since 2013

Since 2013, we have advised organisations across the UAE and GCC on how to navigate complex communications landscapes and build resilient, future-ready brands.

Our Philosophy

Our approach integrates business objectives, stakeholder insight and measurable performance to ensure that every programme contributes to reputation strength, market positioning and sustainable growth.

Sectors We Advise

Our work spans various industries from aviation to technology where we deliver integrated communications strategies aligned to measurable business outcomes, stakeholder trust and long-term brand resilience.

Corporate Communications

Building Relationships | Managing Reputation

We believe in building a deep understanding of each client by working in close collaboration with them to fully grasp their unique needs, goals, and challenges. From this foundation, we develop bespoke strategies in communication solutions tailored to each organization that are designed to drive meaningful and measurable impact.

Our approach is governed by strict KPIs, ensuring every campaign is aligned with clear objectives and that performance is tracked for full accountability. This disciplined focus on results enables us to deliver high ROI, consistently maximizing the value of every investment. As a result, we enjoy exceptional client loyalty, with high retention rates that reflect our unwavering commitment to excellence, partnership, and long-term success.

Digital Communications

Our digital communications strategies translate business objectives into measurable online influence. We align brand voice, audience insight and performance analytics to ensure every channel supports your business goals.

We develop integrated social media strategies, bilingual content programmes (English and Arabic), content planning, and creation across platforms that strengthen credibility and engagement.

Creative & Narrative Development

Our creative services translate strategic positioning into compelling visual and verbal storytelling that strengthens brand perception across every touchpoint. We develop campaign concepts, brochure and corporate collateral design, marketing copy, website content, social media captions, executive messaging and integrated brand narratives that ensure consistency in tone and voice.

Our in-house content production includes professional photography and videography, delivering high-quality visual assets that support campaigns across digital media platforms.

Brand Experiences & Strategic Events

We design and deliver experiential brand programmes that strengthen market presence and stakeholder connection. Our services include corporate events, trade shows, conferences, panels and brand activations across the GCC. We have partnered with industry bodies and corporate organisations to curate high-level panel discussions, leadership forums and stakeholder roundtables that position brands at the centre of critical conversations.

Strategic Advisory

We advise organisations on elevating and protecting their brand in complex, high-stakes environments such as aviation where reputation and stakeholder confidence are critical.

Working closely with executive teams, we help organisations navigate sensitive moments, shape narratives by focussing on crisis and issues preparedness, communications audits and strategic planning. We also support executive profiling and leadership positioning to strengthen credibility across key industry platforms.

Meet Our Founder/Director

Our Founder Iona Al Suwaidi brings more than a decade of experience advising organisations across the UAE, the wider GCC and international markets, she specialises in guiding brands through complex, high-visibility communications environments where reputation and stakeholder trust are critical.
